DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

On September 10, 2019, Karleen Witt filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered Guillain-Barré syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on November 7, 2016. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that she suffered the residual effects of her injury for more than six months. Petition at 4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 29, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for GBS. On August 19, 2020, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded a lump sum of $80,078.00 (consisting of $80,000.00 for pain and suffering and $78.00 in past unreimbursed expenses), and a lump sum of $61,040.57 for satisfaction of a Medicaid

<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I am required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.
